

BURGLARS CAUGHT.

Perpetrators of Recent New York and Brooklyn Robberies.

A Notorious Gang, with "Sheeny Mike" as Their Leader.

Six Jobs Since May 21 Have Been Traced to Them.

Detective-Sergeant McCauley, aided by four others of Inspector McLaughlin's staff, has succeeded in bagging the gang of burglars who have perpetrated all the big robberies in New York and Brooklyn during the last three months.

The chief of the gang is Michael Kurtz, alias "Sheeny Mike," who has a worldwide reputation as an expert crackman, and whose operations have extended to nearly all the capitals of Europe.

The other members of the gang are: Wilson, alias "Jack Mahoney," alias "Jack Sheppard"; Charles Wood, alias "Wright," alias "Fowler"; George A. Miller, alias "Malloy," and Michael Wagner, a nephew of Sheeny Mike.

All of them were remanded by Justice to the New York City Court, this morning.

Six burglaries have been traced to the gang since May 21, on which date they looted the dry-goods store of P. A. & L. F. Newman, in Washington street, near Johnson street, Brooklyn.

It was "Sheeny Mike" and his gang who robbed the Dr. Brothers' store at 211 Sixth avenue, this city, May 25.

Entrance was gained by tunnelling a hole through the wall of an adjoining building. The safe was literally taken apart, no powder being used.

The burglars secured $500 in money. Suspicion pointed to the Dr. Brothers, the chief of the gang, or, at least, the one who had laid the plans for the robbery.

Several other robberies having shown the handwork of this notorious crew, Inspector McLaughlin detailed Detective-Sergeants McCauley, Wood, Miller, Meehan and Nugent on the case.

The first arrest was made Thursday, and others followed at short intervals until last night, when the last of the gang was victim.

Among the victims of "Sheeny Mike" and his gang are T. Altsch and Co., wholesale liquor dealers at 61 College place, whose store was burglarized April 9.

$14 in cash and valuable papers were taken.

April 19 Shalinger & Son, sporting goods dealers at 19 East Fifth street, had their safe blown open and $300 taken.

May 21 the second store of the Dr. Brothers, at Brooklyn, was robbed.

They tried to get into the store, but failed, and carried off a lot of silk.

June 1 they carried off $1,000 in cash from Clark Wilson's millinery store, at Myrtle avenue, but were scared away before they had time to get into the store.

The last job was the robbery of George Bros. dry-goods store, at Bedford avenue and South Eighth street, last Sunday.

Here they succeeded in getting away with $2,000 in cash and $1,000 in goods, or more people in New York and Brooklyn, including Capt. Harry French, of the New York City Police, and a half dozen more detectives of the same force.

The burglars, called by Police Headquarters this morning and this afternoon, "Sheeny Mike's" picture in the "Globe" and "Sun" has been in the hands of the police for some time.

Many warrants are still in the hands of the police, and others are to be issued.

GRADUATES IN FRANKLIN.

John Proctor Clarke, of This City, Delivered the Address.

The graduation exercises of the Franklin High School, class of '94, were held last evening in the Park School Hall, New York.

The address was made by John Proctor Clarke, of this city. His message to the graduates was forcible, well divided into three parts, "Truth, Courage and Patriotism."

The singing was conducted by Prof. Smith, and the choruses were well chosen and exceedingly well rendered.

Miss Laura May Stager read an essay on "Egypt and the Sphinx," which showed a knowledge of the subject, and was highly complimented by W. H. Boardman, President of the Board of Education.

Prof. William R. Wright, the principal of the high school, presided over the exercises.

AFTER THE PADRONES.

Congressional Committee Begins Its Investigation.

The Congressional Committee on Immigration went to Ellis Island this morning to begin an investigation of the methods employed there in the handling of people who come here from other countries. The padrone system, which was brought to its attention by "The Evening World," will be the principal feature of investigation.

The members of the committee in the party were Jacob A. Geissenhainer, of New Jersey; Chauncey Alexander, of Pennsylvania; Robert W. Evans, of Missouri; George H. Buckner, of Wisconsin; Robert C. Sawyer, of Louisiana; Thomas M. Pacheco, of Texas; James W. Maguire, of Maryland; and George W. Maguire, of Ohio.

Accompanying the committee was George J. Jamison, of New York, Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Congressmen were this morning escorted by Dr. Senner, the Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, McQuinn, and other officials.

The committee will be in the hands of the police, and others are to be issued.

GONE WITH THE $31.

That, Too, After Downy and Cook Had Fought Five Rounds.

There Was a Small-Sized Riot and Referee Short L't.

Lots of Excitement for Little Money in Ridgewood.

A rattling fight with skin-tight gloves took place last night at a sporting resort in Ridgewood. It resulted in a free-air-rings rumpus, in which 200 persons took part.

The principals in the first fight were Jack Downy, of Williamsburg, and "Young" Cook, of Brooklyn. They weighed 120 pounds each, and appeared to be in superb condition when they entered the ring.

They fought five rounds, and the referee, Jimmie Short, of Williamsburg, acted as referee.

IS HARTLEY INSANE?

To Examine the Man Who Advertised for 100,000 Voters.

He Had Announced Himself as a Candidate for Mayor.

Told the Justice He Didn't Think He Was Demented.

Edward F. Hartley, aged thirty-nine, of 174 East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, who keeps a men's furnishing store at 235 Third avenue, was committed to Harlem County Jail today at the request of his wife, who said that her husband imagines he owns a large number of stores in Harlem. Until yesterday, she said, he had been missing from his home for two weeks, and had been drawing heavy checks on banks in which he has never had accounts.

Mr. Hartley said that last winter her husband had been in a state of mind in which he had been drawing heavy checks on banks in which he has never had accounts.
